Brighton High School

To Mr. Arthur Hutchings, our janitor and friend, who has been school custodian for nearly six years. His humor and pleasant disposition made high school life more enjoyable. In behalf of the student body, we wish to express our appreciation for the co-operation he has given during school and community activities. We wish him success and health in the future.

DEDICATION

To Mrs. Bertha Schreer Pelkey, our high school secretary whose pleasing personality and cheerful smile shall linger long in our memories. The untiring efforts, co-operation, and interest she has shown the students and faculty of Brighton High School is greatly appreciated. We wish her all the success and happiness possible in her future life.

Editorial

This is the first Brightonian that has been published since the beginning of the war. We hope it will prove to be a good post-war model and a true picture of typical high school life.

We, the annual staff, under the sponsorship of the Student Council, have strived to make this yearbook bigger, better, and more lasting than any previously published. We have worked to make it one which will be interesting and enjoyable reading for the B.H.S. students.

At this time I wish to thank the teachers and staff for the time, patience, and co-operation that they have given so willingly. I wish also to thank the business men of Brighton for their co-operation and financial support of our annual.

And now our goal will have been attained, if, in the future, this annual remains a pleasant reminder of happy days spent at Brighton High School during the year 1945-1946.

Administration

A Challenge

A war weary world awaits the solution of its many ills. It is and will be for years to come the task of our present youth to meet the challenge of producing and distributing sufficient food, clothing and shelter not only to the people of our own nation but to the peoples of the whole world.

We must learn the lesson of getting along with people more than ever before in world history. Modern trends in communication and transportation have made the world shrink to a mere neighborhood area. Inventions of modern science have ushered in an era of tremendous power either for destruction or for peace.

What will you do about it? Nothing? And bring chaos to yourselves and to posterity? Or will you by diligent application develop a sane mind in a sound body imbued with a Christian soul?

MR. DAN SHIRLIFF:

Class Advisor

Class History

The fall of 1942 found us entering B.H.S. as Freshmen. The Freshman initiation introduced us to high school life in a sudden way. We took life easy this year, having quite a few class parties but not many money-making projects. The class officers were as follows: president, Tom Miller; vice-president, Jack Renirie; secretary, Larry Clark; treasurer, Don Allan; student council representative, Bill Ware. Our class advisor was Mrs. Mary Pearsall. At this time we chose as our class motto, "The difficult we do immediately, the impossible takes a little longer." Our flower is the white carnation and our colors are green and white.

Who said Cabbageheads? That's what we answered to in our Sophomore year. All the same, we got down to business and sponsored several parties, the best being the Sophomore Spring Frolic in April. This year the girls had a voice in our class affairs. We elected Joyce Stephens, president; Vaughn Smail, vice-president; Marjorie Mull, secretary, and Bill Ware, treasurer. All the officers were members of the Student Council. Dan Shirtliff was our class advisor.

Well, we've finally outgrown nicknames. As Juniors we sponsored several parties because money-making was our chief aim. We presented a play, "His Name Was Aunt Nellie," on April 19th and 20th. It was a huge success. We tried something new this year and held an all-high election for Queen of the J-Hop. Dolores Juipe of the class of '45 was elected and crowned at the J-Hop. It was held May 18th at Tim Doolittle's Pine Lodge with music by Kenny Maxted's orchestra. In this, our Junior year, we had only four class officers. They were Jack Renirie, president; Don Allan, vice-president; Doris Sutton, secretary-treasurer, and Bill Ware, student council representative (not again!). Allan Hinsdale was our class advisor.

We finally made it. Here we are mighty Seniors of B.H.S. We elected as president, Wayne Baldwin; vice-president, Erwin Bandkau; secretary, Sara Lou Van Sickle; treasurer, Marjorie Mull, and student council representative, Ernestine Riedel. Mr. Shirtliff was again our advisor. Work and slave, that's all we did, but it was worth it. There was enough money in the treasury to pay for everyone's trip. We revived the idea of a homecoming which was held November 1st and 2nd. This included a pep meeting, banquet for the Northville and Brighton football teams, and a dance at the Conservation Clubhouse. On November 14th and 15th we gave the play, "Look Who's Here." The next big event was the Shamrock Shag on March 15th. The Senior Carnival, April 12th, was our last big event. Everyone had a grand time. Here it is!! The thing we have worked for for four years. Our trip! We left May 16th for Holland, Michigan, where we boarded the S.S. South American for a three-day cruise. Some of the interesting sights were Milwaukee, Racine, Chicago, and Mackinac Island. Tired but happy, we arrived in Detroit Sunday, May 19th. Baccalaureate was held Sunday, June 2, 1946, at St. George Lutheran Church with the Reverend Paul Geiger in charge of the service. Commencement was held in the school auditorium June 6, 1946, with James B. Edmunson, Dean of the School of Education, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, delivering the main address.

Class Poem

The Senior class of Brighton High
In a few more days—will heave a sigh.
For out into the world we'll go
To meet our friends—or to meet our foe.

Now the Seniors who will graduate
Boast the proud amount of twenty-eight.
But though we're small—we want to say
You'll miss us boy! there'll come a day!

Why there's Wayne and Bill and Gerry O,
And lots of kids you just call "Moe".
What'll you do without us?—you must confess
The teachers'll be lost—the school in a mess.

For instance take Porky with his winsome ways,
He has brightened many a dreary day.
He is pleasingly plump and full of fun
And from the girls he doesn't run.

Always in trouble—never sulking,
With Brighton High's students he was always talking.
And to the girlies, he was quite a gem,
Who could it be but our Tommy M.

Iris never has much to say
She's always in school—never misses a day.
Her beaux are few; she get fair marks
And unlike others alone she parks.

Who's got the boys all in a dither
And with Jackie she rides around in her flivver.
She's on the go—she's never calm,
Why it's Shirley that Atom Baum!

A dreamer likes to dream good dreams,
Who could it be—none other than Arlene.
She dreams of the sailor who was far away,
She dreams of days he's home to stay.

Here one day—gone the rest of the week,
Where does she go? Is it boy friends to seek?
The only girl in Mechanical Drawing class,
Wow! It's that Evans lass.

This red headed chick is quite a girl
And as for dancing she sure can whirl.
She laughs and giggles and has lots of fun,
It could be no other than Jacquelyn.

A Plumber's daughter is Audrey R.
I'd think she'd make a movie star.
But she works in that place called Donaldson
and Butts,
Peers to me that she's struck a rut.

A sweet disposition has won her fame,
Florence is this maiden's name.
She has blond hair and eyes of blue,
To a boy in the Navy she's very true.

His theme song should be "Don't Fence Me In".
He likes neither girls who are fat or thin.
He doesn't like dances and I don't believe kissing,
Oh Gail! You don't know what you're missing.

New Hudson lost a pretty lass,
Brighton gained her in the Senior class.
At school, at home, Annie never shirks
She works at Hilltop waiting on Brighton
High's jerks.

He's dark and bashful and quite shy,
However ya look at 'em Roland's quite the guy.
In school or on dates he's never a bore
He uses Ponds—he's engaged—he's a Senior.

Courteous and sweet—yet dynamite,
She's got a figure that's really a sight.
She's so small we think of her as a flea
Yet her name's connected with a guy named Lee.

A farmer's daughter—how she does toil,
She does not burn the midnight oil.
Ernie feeds the chicks—and throws the pigs corn
She takes care of kids 'till wee hours in the morn.

The boy turns and whistles—she turns and winks
And both of their faces get a beautiful pink,
For Sara has such an entrancing way
She gets her man everybody can say.

Tall and lean is our Theraise
And as for Johnnie it was a merry race.
She has good taste—she knows her man,
But try and get him if she can.

Who's the guy with a wave in his hair,
And causes the girls to have nightmares?
Oh Gerry's nice—he's quite the guy,
He's tall and dark and never shy.

This is the story of Robert M.
Who comes to school with a silly grin.
He says little and thinks much,
I guess he's afraid of getting in Dutch.

Out strolling one night who should we see
But one of our students called Marjorie.
She stood on the bridge—and looked in the water
Saw a picture of her mother's only daughter.

A mighty girl of '46"
And with the students she loves to mix.
She works at the dime store selling pots and pans
Doris does as much as the bigger girls can.

A Pontiac car she loves to drive
And on its brakes she likes to ride,
People gasp and cry "Insane",
To their astonishment it is Elaine.

Their father takes care of many boy scouts
And Joyce and Dolores are always about.
One is thin, the other quite plump
And with questions 'bout scouting they could not be stumped.

They love to dance and always dressed well
As anyone can easily tell.
Have they boy friends in Brighton? Oh! I think it's those scouts
But with Joyce and Dolores there's never a doubt.

There it goes—a ball of fire?
Nope, it's just Charlene Meyer.
A teacher we think she is going to be
And some day sit on the principal's knee.

Wayne Baldwin happens to be our shiek,
He's always happy—and always neat.
When the girls see him they all give a sigh,
He's head of the Wolf Pack of Brighton High.

Jack and Bill have left for the service
And when on dates they sure weren't nervous.
As cheerleaders their fame has spread afar,
Also in athletics and in a park—ed car.

School plays—football—basketball and baseball,
He's always ready at a moment's call.
By this time you have the drift,
None other than our class advisor—Shirliff.

Did you ever hear of a girl named Carol?
She's not so fussy about her apparel,
She has ash blond hair and eyes of green
And buzzes around with a guy called Gene.

We sure have liked these last few years
And as far as we go our hearts'll remain here.
Wasn't this the place we first learned to write?
And had our first date to the J-Hop at night?

We'll be sorry to leave and we'll miss you so,
But we know you're glad to see us go.
Nevertheless, in our memory book you'll be
To open any time and see what we can see.

So now, lower classmen, we'll say goodbye,
Forget us not 'till the day you die.

—Carol Gitre,
Senior

On September 6, the Juniors were assembled and from that day forward they kept the school from becoming quiet at any one time, with their plans and ideas which were usually carried out.

In addition to their All-Hi's, the Juniors sponsored a dinner dance which was something new and enjoyed by all.

The Junior Play, "The Haunted High School," will long be remembered for the laughs and suspense that it gave the public.

On May 24, the annual J-Hop, one of the big events in the school life of the Juniors and Seniors and also the Seniors going away party, was presented at Pine Lodge. Altogether with Jerry Edwards' Band and the gaily decorated hall, it was a great success.

Our sophomore class did not stand around idle this year. We put in our bid early, which gave us the chance to sell refreshments at all home football games, one basketball game, and the baseball games. This activity improved our treasury considerably.

We sponsored a box-social in November. Although the turnout was not too large, those who did come had fun.

March rolled around and we put on the traditional "Spring Frolic". It was held in the Conservation Club House. Bergl's orchestra furnished the music for dancing. Refreshments consisted of sandwiches, pop and coffee. There was a large crowd and everyone seemed to have a pretty good time.

We closed the year with a class party on May 17th.

The Freshmen Class this year started off with an All-Hi Party on November 30th. During the next few months our class had no particular activities until we presented the play "Elmer" on February 6th. This was a big success. A couple of days later, February 8th, we had a basketball party. On May 31st we had an All-Hi Party and in the last week of school a class party.

The eighth grade started the school year with a class party in November. It was quite an occasion for everyone. We also gave a Christmas Play in December. As the year progressed we had another class party, which was followed by a hayride that turned out to be loads of fun. The boys of the shop class gave a roller skating party for the ninth grade shop class at Island Lake. The school year was climaxed by a trip to Walled Lake.

The seventh grade had a weinie roast in October, followed by a roller skating party in March.

Most of the Junior High belong to the Glee Club.

Orange and Black Staff

In October a group of girls got together and thought that it would be nice if they had a school newspaper. The girls asked Miss Draper to be their leader as she had had quite a bit of experience in that work.

Marjorie Mull, Joyce Stephens, Joan Myers, Bertel Buxton, Dorothy Schreer, Florence Crocker, Lorraine Lueker, Jacque Phenix and Anna McGregor saw to it that the news was brought in. They decided to call the paper the "Orange and Black News". The paper was published almost every week. Anything that happened or was going to happen was sure to be found in the school paper.

The Student Council was organized in September shortly after the school year opened. Besides the officers, who were elected by the student body, it is composed of the president and one representative from each class. The meetings were held every Tuesday during home room period.

During the first semester Mr. Johnson was our advisor. We sold magazine subscriptions and sponsored a student day which was enjoyed very much.

Mr. Dean became our advisor for the second semester and under his supervision we sold garden seeds, sponsored an assembly for the high school, controlled the calendar, or high school activities. We sold tickets for the Magician Show and in March we bought a new movie projector.

For the first time, the Student Council is sponsoring the Annual which has not been put out for three years.

Toward the end of the year personality improvement and fire drill improvement projects were carried out.

Football

Brighton started out in the season by playing Pinckney. Both teams played very well but Brighton came out on the low end of a 12-0 score. For the second contest Walled Lake brought over their champion team and went home victorious with a 26-6 victory under their belts. In the next game B.H.S. met a very powerful backfield and went down fighting with a 28-6 defeat from Clarenceville. The next game was with Ann Arbor "B", a very close game from start to finish with B.H.S. coming out on top with a 13-6 victory. Under the lights at Holly "The Bulldogs" met with a defeat by the Holly eleven, 26-0. The next was a nip and tuck battle with Northville, with Northville victorious 6-0. The last game of the season was at Milford. A very good game with both teams evenly matched. One point decided the game, Milford 7, Brighton 6.

Brighton only won one game but throughout the season the team was always in good spirits and played good, clean football. Brighton invited Northville to a supper after the Brighton and Northville game. Everyone enjoyed the dinner and both teams had a pleasant visit.

Brighton looks toward a good season next year with lights on the new field and an experienced team returning.

Boys' Basketball

Four victories in 11 games was the record of this year's basketball team. Although not maintaining a winning average, the team was one that improved steadily as the season progressed and with only one letter winner lost through graduation, prospects for next season are very good.

After losing the first six games of the season, the Bulldogs started a winning streak that extended through successive wins over Pinckney, Grass Lake, and Hartland. After losing to a strong Ann Arbor University High team the Shirtliffmen closed the regular season by thumping Pinckney for the second time.

At the district tournament at Ypsilanti Brighton lost to Roosevelt High School of Ypsilanti, 37-16.

John Kennedy was high scorer for the season with 57 points, while Harry Davis tallied 49 and Dan Pitkin and Gerald O'Doherty 33 points each.

The reserve team had a good season, winning five of their nine games.

Baseball

An inexperienced baseball team showed much promise of turning in a successful season this spring. Bob Koskovich hurled the Bulldogs to a 3-1 victory in the season's opener against Clarenceville, but this was followed by setbacks at the hands of Milford and Keego Harbor.

Bernon Young, Dan Singer and Bill Cox were the other pitchers besides Koskovich to see action, while Harry Gibson and Bill Mickelson handled the catching duties. Howard Cole at first base, Jack Jarvis at second, Forrest Crocker at third and Vern Baugher at short, did most of the infielding. Outfielders included Harry Davis, Harold Beers, Bob Morgan and Erwin Bandkau. Others out for baseball are Edwin Andrews, Dan Atwell, Wayne Baldwin, Gerald Bretz, Jack Fairchild, Robert Leland, Claude Lybrink, Dave Miller, Charles Reicks, and Jack Thomas. Phil Davis is manager of the team.

The schedule has not been completed as The Brightonian goes to press.

Cheerleaders

"Come on, kids, yell!!" was the slogan of our cheerleaders. On the shoulders of these cheerleaders rested the responsibility for promoting school spirit and loyal support of the athletic teams. We take this opportunity to express our appreciation to them for the untiring efforts which they have put forth. We wish particularly to give credit to Bill Ware and Jack Renirie for the time and patience they have given in organizing and bettering the cheering section of B. H. S.

Following Jack and Bill's entry into the armed service, Ed Faussett and David Lehman took over their positions.

SCHOOL SONG

Fight the team across the field
For B. H. S. is here.
Set the earth reverberating
With a mighty cheer Rah! Rah! Rah!
Hit them hard
And see how they fall,
Never let that team get the ball.
Hail! Hail! The gang's all here,
So let's beat every team this year.

Glee Club

The Glee Club was organized at the beginning of the second semester under the direction of Mrs. DeVine. Mrs. Pinney volunteered to play the piano for us.

There was such a large group of pupils that it became necessary to divide them into two groups. The Senior group, consisting of high school pupils, contains 55 voices. The Junior group, being made up of the seventh and eighth grades, consists of 54 voices.

Two projects which the Glee Club is working on are broadcasting over WPAG in Ann Arbor and later on, giving an operetta or musical.
