A progressive school and a progressive community both need good leaders who will inspire, push, and help the people under them. Mrs. Bishop is representative of this type of leader.

Mrs. Bishop

Capable Leaders - - Willing Followers - -

Progressive School and Community

Just as there are many aspects of community life, there are many aspects of school life. To build a good community or a good school takes a variety of things. Both need capable leaders and ambitious people under them who are willing to put forth much time and effort toward improving their school or community whether it be by providing entertainment for the people or working on some worthwhile project. The young people of today who follow this plan of working together in school can look forward to a better community of tomorrow.

Whether They Are in Their

Here Mr. Schutz is shown explaining a law of physics to Dale Cooper, Deanna Dixon, and George Standlick. Physics is a class of difficult but interesting work which is well worth the time and effort spent on it.

Here students of a packed study hall are shown trying to get down to work. Often, this proves hard for them, but the looming figure of Mr. Prieskorn in the background reminds them that to study would be best.

Classes, or Just on Their Way,

This picture illustrates the condition of the halls seconds after the class dismissal bell rings. The students gaily pour out of their classes, eagerly heading for a friend or the drinking fountain.

Half-way into the five minute period between classes, the halls of B.H.S. are filled with students of various sizes, shapes, and expressions. Discussions centering around preceding classes usually take place during this time.

When students realize that the five minute break is almost up, they gather their books and stroll down the hall to their next class. Somehow, they never seem to go in quite as fast as they come out.

Whether They are Participating in

Their Favorite Clubs or Organizations,

Whether They are Taking Part in

Homecoming - - A Highlight of the Year

The crown-bearer and the flower girl are given instructions and assurance by cheerleader Susie Stellwagen.

Some Special School Activity

B. H. S.'ers are Preparing Themselves

For Their Roles as Future Leaders

Learning to work alone, as the three students are above left, and learning to work together, as the G.A.A. group is doing above right, are two important factors in the development of leaders of tommorrow. If a person is to be a good community leader, he must be able to work in a group with others, yet he must be able to assume the responsibility of leadership.

Seniors Future Role

In Community - - -

Business or Educational

Seniors show enthusiasm as they make out job applications and college entrance forms.

The seniors of Brighton High School are fast approaching the time they can really be a help to, and part of, their community. Whether they will continue their schooling or get jobs after they graduate, Brighton will undoubtedly be "BRIGHTONed" by their accomplishments and be even more proud to count them as her own than she has in the past.

In Memoriam

1944-1961

For our friend and classmate who was taken from our midst at the end of our Junior year.

Though a year has passed since we bade him farewell, time has not erased the keen sorrow we felt at the death of this fine young man, our friend Bill Zellman.

Seniors Look Back

When the class of '62 first entered high school in the '58-'59 school year, they elected Glen Price, President; Marsha Gladys, Vice President; Deanna Dixon, Secretary; Joan Ludtke, Treasurer. They chose Eddie Martin and Dick McElyea to be Freshmen Student Council Representatives. When Homecoming rolled around, Sandra Shekell was selected to be Freshmen Attendant to the Queen.

Perhaps the most memorable event for the class of '62 during their Freshmen year was "Initiation." After much hazing by the Sophomores, they were accepted as full fledged members of Brighton High School.

Now the class of '62 were Sophomores. At their first class meeting they elected Joan Ludtke, President; Barb Love, Vice President; Ron McClements, Secretary; Susie Uber, Treasurer; Sandra Shekell and Randy Marx to the posts of Student Council Representatives. The Attendant to the Homecoming Queen was Joan Ludtke.

During this year, the class of '62 chose their class colors of red and white, the white carnation as their class flower, and "Before you can score, you must first have a goal." as their class motto.

At the beginning of their Junior year, the class chose Hugh Munce, President; Jim Davis, Vice President; Kathy Wright, Secretary; Sandra Shekell, Treasurer; Ron McClements and Barb Love as Student Council Representatives. Diana Cain was chosen to represent the class of '62 in the Homecoming Court as the Junior Attendant.

During their final year of high school the class of '62 chose Jim Davis, President; Paul Weber, Vice President; Karen Herbst, Secretary; Ruth Worrall, Treasurer; and Dale Cooper and Dennis Pearsall as Student Council Representatives. Joan Ludtke was chosen as Homecoming Queen with Beth Osborn as Senior Attendant.

After four full and rewarding years of high school they look back and thank their advisors, Mrs. Hawkins and Mr. Smith, for all the help, time, and effort they gave so freely.

And now the class of '62 looks ahead to the future.

Students study habits further their scholastic status, but will also aid them when they enter the community and pour forth this acquired knowledge into business.

Underclassmen's School Attitude Indicative of Future Behavior In Community

Although the underclassmen are not yet ready to take their places among the builders of the community, they can make their community proud of them and its school as a whole right now by taking their studies seriously and enthusiastically supporting the programs of the school. Many students go even further to better their community by working part-time at various jobs and so preparing themselves to be the community's leaders of tomorrow.

The Class of '65 elected Sandy Orndorf to be their attendant. She chose Mike Stellwagen to be her escort. Here they are shown getting into the convertible at half-time.

Here is something Freshmen had to get used to this year—the crowded hurry of all the students between classes.

Junior High Students Work Hard

The students in Mr. Doane's class find geography fun as well as interesting because of the many colorful maps and occasional movies.

Mrs. Dickenson has her hands full with this huge health class, but with an interesting subject and a cooperative group, it isn't hard to get the message across.

To Ready Themselves for Their

In Mr. Kucher's shop class, girls as well as boys take part in many projects, learning the operation of various tools.

During the Junior High lunch period, the cafeteria is always a busy place. Whether they buy their lunch or bring it, students crowd around the tables, mixing the pleasure of eating with the pleasure of talking with a busy place. Whether they buy their lunch or bring it, students crowd around the tables and mix the pleasure of eating with the pleasure of talking with friends.

The students of Brighton Junior High have the "forward look." Illustrating this fact are left to right: Dave Hartman, Don Carney, and Bob Carusi who are looking over the trophies in the show case and perhaps thinking that they or their classmates may, in the years to come, add more to the shelves of the case.

Future Roles as High School Students

Shown here are the students in one of Mrs. Snellenberger's math classes, where math is an absorbing subject. Mrs. Snellenberger seldom has trouble relaying the rules of arithmetic to the students.

In order to get any work done in a study hall, whether it be Junior High or Senior High, intense concentration and the will power not to talk to one's neighbor are needed.

Mrs. Catecazzeno's class isn't studying right now, but usually they are hard at work doing such things as improving their vocabulary.

Wooden carolers, made by the shop and art classes, adorned the lawn at Christmas time. All were cheered by their colorful sight.

Students Entertain Community; Grant Artistic Pleasures

Good entertainment is part of any community and Brighton is no exception. The student body of Brighton High School puts forth much time and effort to bring the community such worthwhile and enjoyable projects as plays, band concerts and vocal concerts. The participants not only bring pleasure to their audiences but also to themselves, simply because they have played a part in bringing recreation to their community.

Drum Major and Majorettes Add Color to Half Time Entertainment for the Community

For the first time in many years, Brighton has a Drum Major. Under the instruction of Mr. Klopshinske, the Band Director, Chuck Haughton has become proficient at leading the Marching Band during football season. Many compliments have been received on this addition to the Band and everyone agrees that Chuck has done a fine job strutting in his bright new uniform.

Voices Raised - - To Everyone's Pleasure

The Brighton High School is made up of 61 voices. Under the direction of Mr. Mallet, the group practices for an hour a day. With the Senior and Junior Bands, the choir participates annually in the Christmas Concert and the Spring Concert.

One of the goals of each of the choir members is to be accepted in All League Choir. Each year there are try-outs and those selected for the talented group are joined by members of other schools. This group then performs for Brighton and the surrounding areas to bring them some really good and enjoyable music.

The members of Brighton's choir have been responsible for many hours of listening pleasure for the people of the community.

Chorus Librarians Betty Knappman and Silvia Hubbs look over the music file.

Play Receives Excellent Review From Community Newspaper

"The Brighton Argus" gave the Senior Play a most complimentary review. They had this to say; "It was an experience in pure fun, one shared without inhibition by the youthful cast with its appreciative audience. The youngsters had a rare bird of unsophisticated humor by the feathers, and held a firm grip until the last laugh had been wrung . . . The cast performed with uncommon dexterity and attention to small detail in a manner that earned every clap of applause."

Dick Krasuski didn't mind the make-up, even though it made him look rather ancient.

Students prepare to re-enact a scene at one of the many rehearsals that were squeezed into a two week period.

"Mercy! I have never been so humiliated in my entire life!" shouted Randy Marx, dashing football hero and idol of the three autograph seekers, Nancy Krause, Jamie Harmon, and Judie Latimer. The enthusiastic girls attempt to get a piece of Buck O'Hara's shirt as a treasured souvenir.

"Curtain Going Up"

"Well don't just gawk! Get the dagger out of my back!" cries Dan Amenson as he satirizes a melodramatic tragic scene.

The Brighton Dramatics Club was added to the many clubs of Brighton on October, 1961 when over fifty students joined. The club's first production, "Why the Chimes Rang," was presented on December 22, 1961.

The goal of the club is to introduce to all students, the various aspects of the theatre. These aspects are make-up, stage construction, advertizing, directing, and acting.

The Dramatics Club Proves Itself

"Why the Chimes Rang," a one act play set in the medieval period, was directed by Mrs. Twomey. The production is the heart-warming story of the ringing of church chimes annually when the most precious gift proves to be Love, which definitely helps to show the true spirit of Christmas.

Shown here is John Park, who played a kind boy, showing generosity to Diana Durbin, who played a sick old woman.

Junior Play - - Fun and Funny

The Junior Play this year was "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay", a true story written by Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough. It was a comedy about two young girls who take an ocean voyage to Paris, France. While it was enjoyed by all spectators, those who enjoyed it most were the Juniors who put it together.

Active Youths Contribute Much to Community

In order to have a progressing community, the people in it must be active. At Brighton High School, the students learn to take an active part in the happenings by participating in the projects of the many organizations offered here. Ranging from sports groups, such as the Girls Athletic Association, to speech betterment groups, such as the Debate Team, the activities keep the young people—hence the community—fit in mind and body.

This year the Journalism class divided into two groups. The one below wrote articles for a page in the Brighton Argus called the Brighton High School Review. This page explained more clearly to the community what was going on in the high school. This group is, left to right: R. Orndorf, J. Armstrong, D. Parmenter, K. Bosquett, C. Madden, L. Dodge, D. Pearsall, and J. Ludtke.

THE BULLDOGS BANNER

Our Student Council

This is the Student Council, a composite of two representatives and a vice president from each class, four council officers, and an advisor. The Student Council, carries out the ideas and wishes of the classes and students in general, upon approval of the administration, and is looked upon as the "federal government" of the school.

The Student Council members are, standing: Chuck Haughton, Dale Cooper, Terry Fear, Dave Herbst, Keith Drayton, Paul Weber, Ed Case, Joe Kearns, Dennis Pearsall, Jim Funsch, and, seated: Pam Wright, Susie Stellwagen, John Park, Mac Pearsall, Jacque Carney, and Sandy Orndorf. Mr. Schutz, the advisor, is standing at the rear.

These are the Student Council officers chosen by election, who, with the guidance of Mr. Schutz, direct the work of the council. The officers are, Susie Stellwagen, treasurer, John Park, vice president, Mac Pearsall, president, and Jacque Carney, secretary.

-Active and Helpful

Inexperienced Debate Team Argues Well

The topic for debate this year was: Resolved: That the federal government should equalize educational opportunities by means of grants to the states for public elementary and secondary education.

Our Librarians--Aids to Learning

The librarians work hard keeping the library orderly. They must check the books in and out, make sure all fines are paid, and help students find the information they are looking for. Their work is greatly appreciated by the students and faculty at Brighton High.

Future Teachers Gain Experience

The Future Teachers of America was created to help high school students towards a career in teaching. This year the club's activities include cadet teaching by the junior and senior members, interesting trips, participation in American Education Week, this year by the "Apple for the Teacher" project and many other things.

The F.N.C. girls are those girls who are interested in nursing and hope to make nursing their careers in the future.

International Dinner Great Success for F. H. A.'ers

Decorations for the International Dinner were made by: standing, left to right: C. Hall, C. Davis, D. Fick, and D. Marcas. Seated are: S. Glenn, D. Shekell, Y. Bigger, and V. Williams.

The first fun activity this year was a "rainey cookout." The girls enjoyed a nature scavenger hunt along with songs and games.

This year the group arranged a service project, a potluck dinner, a pizza pie sale, and a trip to the ice capades.

The girls have worked hard this year trying to make this a bigger and better organization.

Girls Enjoy Many Sports

Under the supervision of their new advisor, Mrs. Dickensen, the 47 members of the G.A.A. have engaged in some very exciting sports this year. Basketball, baseball, tumbling and bowling are some of the activities there girls enjoy along with an occasional game of volleyball.

Harriet Burton and Joyce Gibson jump for the "jump ball" to start G.A.A. basketball game.

The Varsity cheerleaders have had many duties during the '61-'62 season. Their advisor, Mrs. Taylor, has been a great help to them in the completion of these projects, including prompting school spirit and preparing pep assemblies for each home game.

In November new uniforms were purchased by the cheerleaders for basketball season with notable approval from the student body.

Cheerleaders Get New Uniforms

They worked hard in the activity and school life section.

Annual Staff advisor, Mrs. Carson, and editor, Diana Durbin, are captured as they look over yearbook material.

Staff Works Hard for New Look

Teachers Guide Students Toward A More Productive Life In Community

It surely can be said that the teachers of Brighton High School contribute a great deal to the community. As they prepare the leaders of tomorrow, they not only serve as instructors of academic subjects, but are always ready and willing to help the students with any problem they might have. Whether they be serving as organizers of enjoyable and beneficial extra curricular activities, as counselors for some troublesome problem, or just as friends, our teaching staff is constantly bettering the community by teaching its young people to accept the responsibility of the position that awaits them.

Mrs. Monroe, a mathematics teacher, meets with a parent at a PTA gathering. At this particular meeting parents followed their children's class program and sat in on classes in order to get a better idea of what was being covered and what was expected of their children in the course.

Progressive Administration Works Hard

Mr. Hawkins born in Lawton, Michigan, attended Kalamazoo College and the University of Michigan where he received his A.B. and M.A. degrees. He was the principal and coach at Berrien Springs for ten years and superintendent at Brighton for ten years, a period which has seen vast increases in the student body and the faculty.

Mrs. Michels, from Howell, Michigan, started as a secretary at Brighton High School eleven years ago. She is currently working at the Miller School in Brighton where she does all the financial work for the whole system, the school board minutes and issues working papers.

The Brighton School Board consists of seven members this year. They are Mr. Powers, Mr. Allen, Mrs. Hyne, Mr. Davis, Mr. Probst, Mr. Leith, and Mr. Warner. The members are nominated by petition and elected by all eligible voters in the district. The board meets twice a month to fulfill its duties some of which are setting up general policies, hiring all personnel, running the whole school system, plus expressing committee opinions.

They guide Future Leaders

Mr. Fitzgerald was born in Flint, Michigan. He attended Flint Junior College, Toledo University, where he received his BEd. degree, University of Michigan, where he received his M.A. degree, and presently attends courses at Michigan State University. Mr. Fitzgerald taught eight years in Flint, one year in Ypsilanti and was a principal for two years at Middleton before coming to Brighton. Some of his school duties include representation on the board of control, attendance officer and part-time school nurse.

Hard work at Eastern Michigan University and Cleary college got Mrs. Bidwell her teachers certificate. This eager typist and part-time errand girl is from Livingston County. She has held her present post of secretary to the principal for the past four years.

Mrs. Lueker, Mr. Scranton's secretary of five years, is a native of Brighton. She attended Eastern Michigan University and taught kindergarten for two years before deciding on a secretarial career.

Mr. Scranton, the Junior High principal and athletic director, hails from Paw Paw, Michigan. He received a B.S. degree from Western Michigan University and a M.A. degree from the University of Michigan. Over all the busy activities Mr. Scranton has had for the last ten years he still finds time for counselling students as well as being a recreational director during both the school year and summer time.

Teachers Encourage Students

Mrs. Arnold was originally from Burlington, Iowa. She attended Blackburn College and Iowa University where she earned her B. S. degree. Being a Home Economics teacher, Mrs. Arnold is a great help to those who are striving for excellence in performing domestic chores.

Mr. Arnold, who is from Marquette, Michigan, attended Western Illinois and Michigan State University where he received his M.A. degree. He teaches 7th grade science and high school biology. Curious students are always in his homeroom examining the various science projects.

Originally from Belfort, Ireland, Mrs. Bishop now teaches 7th grade English. She attended Michigan State University where she received her B.A. degree. Mrs. Bishop is known by both junior and senior high students for her warm friendliness.

Mrs. Christensen's birthplace is Detroit, Michigan. She received her B.A. degree at Michigan State University and teaches 12th grade English. In addition, she is a much needed and appreciated Freshman Advisor.

Receiving her B.A. degree at the University of Michigan, Mrs. Carson was originally from Chicago, Illinois. She teaches 10th grade English and journalism in addition to being an inspirational advisor of the annual staff.

Mrs. Catacuzzo, from Detroit, received her B.A. degree from Wayne State University. She is now teaching 8th grade English and helps her students improve their vocabulary.

Toward Betterment of Future Community

Mrs. Dickenson, the physical education teacher, is from Salisbury, North Carolina. She received her B.A. degree in biology and physical education from Duke University. As she has a good sense of humor, Mrs. Dickenson's classes are never dull.

Mr. Doane was born in Lansing, Michigan and attended the University of Michigan where he received his B.A. degree. He is now teaching 7th grade geography and his students learn much from his efficient methods of teaching.

Mr. Doane

Mr. Ehnis, of Ann Arbor, Michigan, has a B.S. degree from Eastern Michigan University and is currently teaching general math, world history, and geography. He is also a cheerful and helpful advisor.

Born in Flint, Michigan, Mr. Etcorn has a B.S. degree from Eastern Michigan University and teaches typing and shorthand. He livens up his classes with interesting discussions.

Mr. Fosdick, from Saline, Michigan, earned a B.S. degree from Eastern Michigan University. He teaches physical science, is the head coach for Varsity Basketball, Junior Varsity Football, and also is the assistant for track. Apparently Mr. Fosdick believes that mental and physical fitness go hand in hand.

Mr. Golden, from Jackson, Michigan, attended Michigan State University where he earned his M.A. degree. He now teaches shop and the Freshmen are fortunate in being able to count him as one of their advisors.

A native of Chicago, Illinois, Mrs. Hawkins, graduated from Michigan State University with a B.S. degree. She teaches Home Economics, but is always ready to help the students with any project.

Our Friends and Advisors Are

Mrs. Kennedy, the junior high and senior high Spanish teacher, was born in Germany. She has earned her B.A. and M.A. degrees from Olivet College, Michigan, Mexico City College, Mexico, and the University of Michigan. The atmosphere of Mrs. Kennedy's classes is always cheerful.

Civics and 8th grade American History are the subjects Mrs. Hendershott teaches. She originally was from Kenmore, North Dakota and attended Dickenson College in Pennsylvania, University of Munich in Germany, and the University of Michigan where she received her B.A. degree. Her pleasant methods of teaching make learning enjoyable.

Mr. Herbst's home town is La Porte, Indiana. He graduated from the University of Michigan with a B.S. degree and has his M.A. degree from Eastern University. The subjects taught by him include 8th grade arithmetic and high school mechanical drawing. Mr. Herbst's classes are always run smoothly and efficiently.

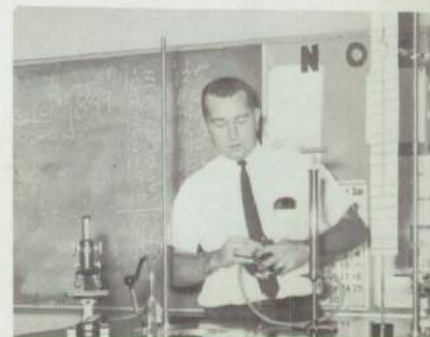

Coldwater, Michigan was originally the home of Mrs. Knight. From Michigan State University she received a B.A. degree in art which she is currently teaching. She has inspired many nice projects.

Howell, Michigan was the birth place of Mrs. Hicks, who attended the University of Michigan where she received her B.A. and M.A. degrees. Mrs. Hicks is a familiar sight to all the students of Brighton High School. She has taught many subjects; this year she is teaching ninth grade English.

Mr. Kucher, from Detroit, Michigan, attended the University of Michigan where he received his B.S. degree. This year he teaches 8th grade science, 7th grade shop in addition to being the head baseball coach and the assistant football coach. Mr. Kucher is well known for being good-natured.

Ann Arbor is the home town of Mrs. Monroe. She graduated from Michigan State University with a B.S. degree. The subjects taught by her are algebra II and plane geometry. If a student needs a friend, he can surely count on Mrs. Monroe.

Always Ready with a Helping Hand

Born in Wayne, Michigan, Mr. Klopshinske attended Wayne State University where he received his B.S. and Music Ed. degrees. He teaches instrumental music and has made the Brighton High School Marching Band a band all Brighton can really be proud of.

The vocal music teacher, Mr. Mallet, is from South Haven, Michigan. He graduated from Hillsdale College with B.A. degree. Mr. Mallet's cheery attitude carries over to his students.

Mr. Prieskorn, who has always lived in Brighton, attended Michigan State University where he earned his B.S. degree. In addition to being an advisor to the Sophomore Class and the golf coach, he teaches chemistry, solid geometry, and trigonometry. Mr. Prieskorn's hearty laugh can usually be heard echoing through the halls of Brighton High School.

Miss. Rueseger, a native of Grand Rapids, Michigan, attended Olivet College and Eastern Michigan University where she received her B.A. degree. She teaches algebra I and is a Junior Class advisor. Most students will agree that Miss Rueseger's methods of teaching are very helpful and effective.

Mr. Schutz, who teaches chemistry, physics, and is an extra curricular and guidance counselor, originally was from Park Falls, Wisconsin. He received his A.B. degree from Ripim College and his M.A. degree from the University of Michigan. A student can receive help from Mr. Schutz with a problem at any time.

Mrs. Snellenberger
The 7th and 8th grade mathematics teacher, Mrs. Snellenberger, was originally from Muskegon, Michigan. She attended Western Michigan University where she received her B.A. degree. Mrs. Snellenberger's pleasant smile makes the burden of lessons lighter for her students.

Washington, Michigan is the home town of Mr. Smith, who is the biology and drivers' training teacher in addition to being an advisor to the Senior Class. He received his B.S. and M.A. degrees from the University of Michigan. Mr. Smith is known for his pleasant nature and good sense of humor.

Faculty Leads Us To Success

Mrs. Snider, the librarian, was born in Frankfort, Indiana. She attended Eastern Michigan University, Ball State Teachers College, and the University of Michigan. Mrs. Snider is always in the library ready to help a student find a specific book.

Teaching bookkeeping, senior math, and office practice are the duties of Mr. Stewart this year. A native of Brighton, he attended Michigan State University where he received his degree. This is Mr. Stewart's first year teaching at Brighton and apparently he is enjoying it as much as his students.

Mr. Wolcott, of Lake Orion, Michigan, attended Michigan State University and Alma College where he received his B.A. degree. He teaches physical education, drivers training, and is Varsity Football and Junior Varsity Basketball Coach. His friendly attitude not only relaxes his student drivers, but adds to the cheerfulness of the school.

Mrs. Taylor's home town is Detroit, Michigan. She received her B.A. degree from the University of Michigan and is now teaching ninth and eleventh grade English in addition to organizing the Senior Play and advising Varsity and Junior Varsity Cheerleading. Mrs. Taylor keeps her classes under firm control, but nearly always has a smile on her face.

Mrs. Wilson, who teaches Latin and government, was born in Cambridge, Ohio. She graduated from Adrian College with a B.A. degree and has taken graduate courses at Michigan State University. Mrs. Wilson's high ideals have guided many a student toward more serious study.

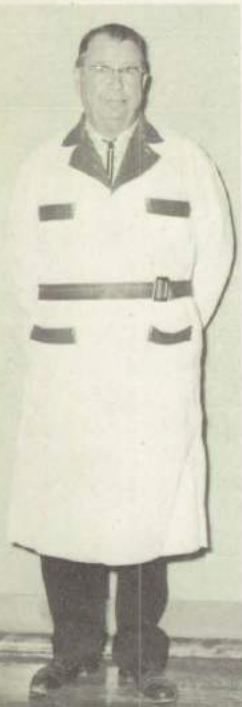

Canton, Ohio is the birthplace of Mrs. Twomey, the U.S. History and speech teacher. She has her B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Michigan and is the sponsor of the Dramatics Club and coaches the Debate Team along with Mrs. Taylor. Mrs. Twomey's enthusiasm inspires the students to work for the best results.

Cheerful School Workers Give Students a Lift

Mr. Crawford, the transportation director, is greatly appreciated not only by the school but also the community.

The school-workers of Brighton High are greatly appreciated by the students, faculty, and whole community. Not only do they always have a cheery greeting and the latest joke to tell, but they are willing to help with various projects. Mr. Eastman is a shining example of this as he dressed up as "Old Man Spirit" one day at a pep assembly to raise school spirit.

Shown here are just a few of the many spectators who always attend Brighton's sports events. Whether the sport be basketball, football or some other, the players are cheered on by both young and old.

Brighton Sports Captivate Fans

Not only the student body and the people closely associated with Brighton High School, but rather the whole community is proud of the various teams in Brighton's sports department. These young men provide wholesome entertainment for all of Brighton and, win or lose, the people are proud of them because they are trying, trying for the betterment of the school through their victories, just as they may, in future years, be trying for the betterment of the community, by working for definite goals.

Varsity Team Composed Primarily of Sophomores and Juniors

Bulldogs Entertain Losing Year

It is well known, all over, that Brighton High had a bad year. This is true but you must take into consideration that Brighton is a small school compared to the larger schools in our league such as Northville, our long time rival. The first game of the season was with South Lyons, a game which is always thought of as a toss up, we lost it 7 to 13. Next came Bloomfield Hills 0 to 21, Holly 20 to 28, West Bloomfield 13 to 33, and Clarkston 12 to 28. On October 20 we meet Northville for our Homecoming, we wanted this game more than any other single game of the year, only after many high hopes had turned into the faces of defeat did we realize that the score had turned into an unbelievable 0 to 28. We finished off the season by losing to Clarenceville, in a heart breaker, 19 to 20, and to Milford 0 to 12.

But Have High Hopes for Next Year

Brighton - 0	Milford - 13	Brighton - 32	South Lyon - 12
Brighton - 0	Bloomfield Hills - 33	Brighton - 14	Clarkston - 26
Brighton - 12	Holly - 32	Brighton - 6	Northville - 13

JV Improves Through Season

The J. V. football team started with 43 boys and ended with 39 still working and giving their all. Although the one last record (1-5) is unimpressive, the scores indicate great improvement over the season. The finale at Northville was a real rough encounter which indicated the improvement of the team. The team was made up of mostly freshmen who will undoubtedly be around for another J. V. year.

The team forms a huddle as they discuss plays and strategy with their coaches, Mr. Fosdick and Mr. Stewart.

Scores Low - - Spirit High

The Junior Varsity basketball team didn't fare very well this year, winning 2 and losing 14. The lack of height and experience were the main problems of this year's team.

Most of this year's players will try out for Varsity Basketball next year. After the experience they received under Coach Wolcott in Junior Varsity, they should help to contribute to a successful season next year.

Although this year wasn't one of the Bulldog's best, their spirit was high and this carried over to the fans. Most of the games were quite exciting, with a few of them being very close. The Bulldogs look forward to a better year next season when they will have more experienced men on their team.

Ninth Graders Hope of Future Teams

The purpose of Freshman basketball is to improve the players' coordination, their basic basketball techniques and to build their skill for the future varsity squads.

Judged only by the games won, this year's team did not have a particularly successful year with 2 wins and 9 losses. However since most of the boys on the squad didn't have 7th & 8th grade basketball training it is felt that they had a definite handicap.

Junior High Teams Improve with Experience

Junior High basketball is important, not only in helping the players to be well co-ordinated but also in promoting good sportsmanship among both players and spectators.

The seventh and eighth grade teams are set up very much like those of the Varsity and Junior varsity. They have competed with such schools as Northville, Holly, and West Bloomfield.

The eighth grade finished the year with six wins and four loses; the seventh grade team had one win and nine loses. This win near the end of the season showed that the team had improved. They are looking forward to a better season next year.

Golfers Show Good Form

With Brighton's first string and added support from the ranks this year's record should be a good one. The young members of the team should develop a technique that will help them win meets. The outlook for this season is very good.

The returning Lettermen on this year's Varsity with Coach Prieskorn, are: Dennis Pearsall, Dennis Denkhause, and Chris Klages.
